DOLLERS AND DANGER FOREVER

OBANA

DOLLERS AND DANGER FOREVER

wheals - Composer

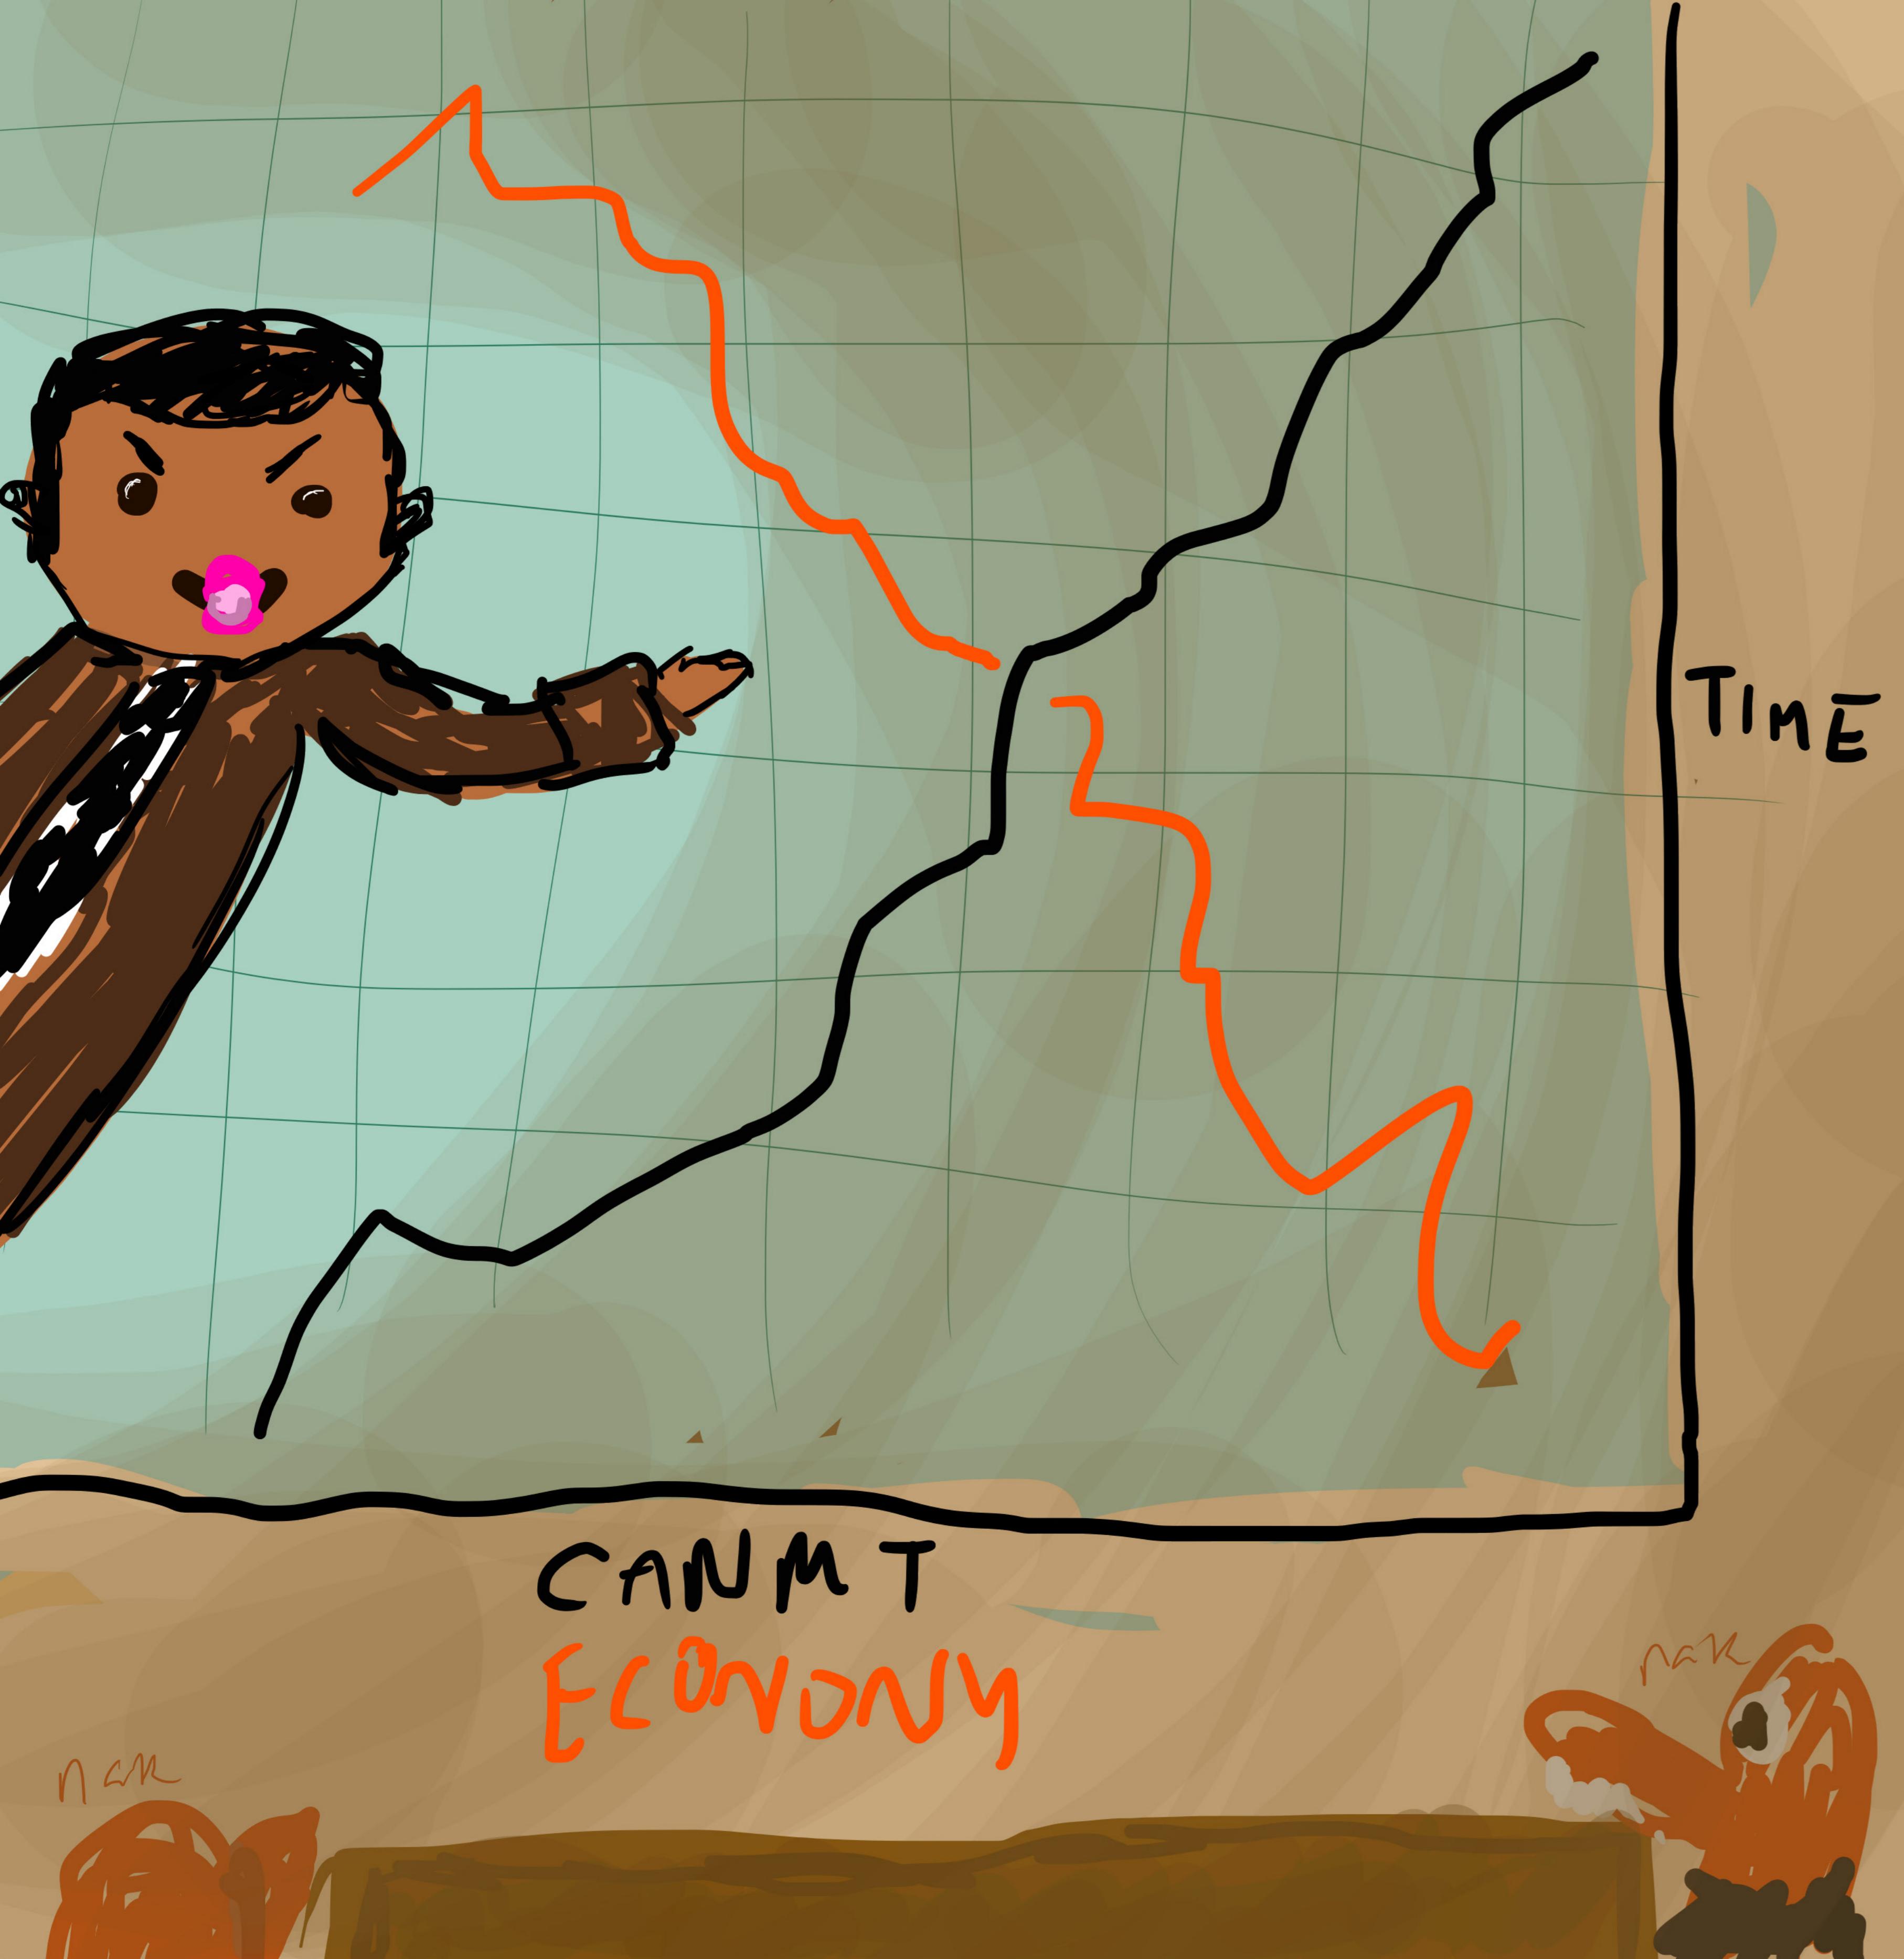

The idea of the song was to create march music for Obama's reign, with the inspiration of course of Stars and Stripes Forever (because, while a fair bit of American music was being referenced on the album, it was mostly the same songs over and over). I'm not entirely happy with it in that sense, because it doesn't reach my original goal of making a song strongly reminiscent of Stars and Stripes Forever without directly referencing it, ala She's a Sp8der.

XenoZane - Artist

Not to stroke his ego too much but doing a parody of the nevermind album art was makin's brilliant idea

Makin - Makin

It's stroking my ego too much, you failed

RECESSION

WHATISLOSTINTHEMINES - Composer

I can't believe the economy is fucking dead.

wank underscore - Artist

okay so the way this happened was i got a graphics tablet and this was the literal first thing i did, and also the album needed art

(canmt are killing the economy, please help, our inflated bandcamp prices are seriously damaging the net worth of existence)

!!! WHITE HOUSE SHOWDOWN, (ECONOMY IN STATE OF DISREPAIR)! !!!

wank underscore - Composer

ok so right i just decided using 3000 notes on a single piano roll channel was what i wanted to do with this track

ask me for a midi file because i can verify this nights - Artist

supreme over the top anime showdowns are what i live for

BABY OBANA'S THEME

Akalabeth - Composer

Baby Obama is a complicated character, who deserved a complicated and nuanced theme. I simply gave the people what they wanted and created possibly the greatest obana song meme possible. I transcribed the Kenyan National Anthem (Ee Mungu Nguvu Yetu) and slapped a Touhou toy piano on that lil' shit. The signature Homestuck motifs are only there to solidify the cool and new nature of Obama's character. Hopefully you will hear this song and believe in a future of change, hope, and memes.

minish - Artist

i was gonna do a porky thing but it didnt make much sense so i did a doctor baby and put obana on it and i am awesoem. he has a gun im not sure anyone looking at it noticed, but he is holding a gun. dont ever say minish did not draw baby obama hlding a gun, because he did. he did do this and this album is the evidence you need to 100% confirm this. somebody once told me that i would never reach this point in my life but i did. this is very evident from the track art you can see there. if you actually took the time to read this on the stream i congratulate you. please say "minish is a very good content creator" in chat in my honour, thanks

YOU MEAN THE CHAOS EMERALDS?

Hadron - Composer

FrostyMac - Composer

It's funny, I first saw the video this song is based on during the 9 stream. I've always been a Sonic fan, so doing a Sonic based song seemed like a no-brainer for me after I saw the video.

Difarem - Composer

commentary? what commentar- oh. all i did was rewriting the first bars of the track with new instrumentation after i heard cookie complaining about the original.

PoisonedElite - Composer

"You mean, The Chaos Emeralds?" but yeah that post is pretty funny, applause to Difarem and FrostyMac to doing a lot of the beginning and getting me to do this.

Hadron - Artist

"Nuclear" Roxanne - Artist

I actually like the half pipe. It's overdone, sure, but it's better than Blue Spheres. Seriously, fuck Blue Spheres.

ackro - Artist

fuck you blue spheres is the shit half pipe is for normies.

BobTheTacocat - Artist

okay so cookie(fonster) told me to write what i did for the track art before i even finished my part of the track art. i'll write what i did after, but i'm keeping this here you know what, actually, no. that's all i'm writing for the track art commentary. fuck you cookie

STORMING THE WHYTE HOU

PizzaGremlin - Composer

i made this song for 9 but it was one of like six obana songs so thats why theres an obalbum. hey can we call it the obalbum. it sucks but also i love it.

XenoZane - Artist

im not an artist dont @ me

SECANT SOIVICE THE RADIO DRAMA: EPISODE 318

PoisonedElite - Composer

ackro - Artist

I originally wanted to make a theme song for the nakkodiles with shades that act as Obama's Secret Service (which i thought it would be funny to call them Secant Soivice) but I decided to do a radio drama style thing for them instead and this is how it turned out. I hear NPR a lot when in the car so I decided to butcher it with bad compression and throw it in. Enjoy.

i think the only thing im proud of in this is the nak espn logo gag.

[NPR Morning Edition Theme]

Radio person: "Up next, Secant Soivice: Episode Three Hundred Eightteen."

PSA Person: "Note all the characters portrayed are based off real people and portrayed by actors. No one was harmed in the production of this episode."

Tom: "Welcome back to Sports the Network, I'm Tom"
Jim: "AND IM JIM. NAK."

Jim: "TOM WE'VE SEEN SOME FINE PLAY THIS SEASON BUT THIS GAME IS VERY SPECIAL INDEED."

Tom: "That's Right Jim. For the first time in his term, President Obama Himself is here to watch the sports as they happen in the theater."

[Crowd cheering]

Agent 1: "Look, we need extra security incase he shows up. Get me that"

Obama: "Don't worry about him. We can take him if he crashes the party to get to me."

Agent 1: "Oh shit I have to go."

Announcer: "All rise for the Land of Dollers and Danger National Anthem."

[The US National Anthem Plays]

[Crowd Panic]

Crowd Person 1: "Oh my god it's Jhon Ebgret."

Crowd Person 2: "Run for your life!"

Agent 1: "President, what should we do?"

Obana: "Finsish Him."

[Door Creak]

Announcer: "Open Fire"

[Half-Life 2 Gun Sound effects]

[Glass Shatter]

Obama: "Don't be fooled, he will be back eventually. We have much to do, my SECANT SOIVICE."

[NPR Morning Edition Theme]

Tom: "What will happen next? Will Jerry admit her feelings for Obana? Will Jhon finally be brought to justice? We may only find out in the next episode of SECANT SOIVICE."

Radio Person: "We now return to your regularly scheduled Cool and New Album."

SORRY FOR BREAKING INTO UR WHITE HOUSE

NyashAlex - Composer

Makin - Artist

me in the 1st decade of june: hmmm let's make an obama track

me in the 3rd decade of june: shit i'm late for the deadline, i guess i'll finish it somewhen me two months later: fuck it has been two months, almost an eternity, how do i even work with this thing and is it even a thing at all, what the hell have i done 2 months ago, how do i unravel this mess

Not much to say about this one, it's a shameless ripoff of one of many meme apology forms on the internet, with some mspaint pencil art representing [s] tiptoes, the one flash with the thing. good times, good times.

CORRUPT POLITICAIN

this is kind of embarrassing i just quit in a massive meltdown after someone said the obalbum was a bad name but i still didn't do commentary for this one. the first version of this was an earthbound sounding one but it used hail to the chief like half the songs on here so i scrapped it and made something original. now im going back to being angry that obalbum isn't the official name. also be sure to put this song after my last one so the story behind obalbum is easy to follow.

ackro - Artist

i kinda just made this one as like a miscellaneous meme art for the album and just threw it here cause it fit well enough. not really that much of an interesting story. sorry guys, looks like im failing as a canmt member.

A BORING DAY IN THE OFFICE (WITHOUT JHON)

NyashAlex - Composer

Possibly my first completely original track done after somewhat realizing how to harmonize things (i'm still unsure that my understanding of harmonization is as it must be.....).

One of my buddies says that this track suits post-finale Mordecai from Regular Show and I should've named it "Repeat and Rewind", so there's that.

Makin - Artist

Ironic, that I would parody an art NyashAlex himself made for this musical track. 1x SHOWDOWN COMBO is great and even thematically related to this album, I could not not do it.

NyashAlex - Composer

OH MY GOD IM LAUGHING LOUDER THAN I SHOULD bless you makin :blue_ heart:

OBANA BOMBA

AlphaShire - Composer

I thought of the name Obama Bomba so I just went with it, the song was actually sort of rushed because it was finished the night before I left for vacation. Even though it was rushed it actually songs pretty good and is one of the best songs I've made as of writing this.

XenoZane - Artist

i opened up gimp, downloaded some obama picture, and i dont remember what happened after that. somehow this image ended up in my documents folder...

BATTLE AGAINST A BABY PRESIDENT

Ray "Radical" Maiky - Composer

nights - Artist

Ummmmmmm... I can't think anything to write so, get out of here please, there's nothing important to read.

uh?

hey man, stop reading

yo, seriously, stop now

wh-what the hell?

really, s-t-o-p

HO CMON

STOP!

HAAAAAAAAAAAAA, STOOOOP!

STOP READING HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA AAAAAAAAAAAAAAA"

this is probably gonna be my last art piece for a while so im hoping to end it on a good note with something nice. also read oceanfalls.

OBANA LEGEND FIGHTER

AlphaShire - Composer

This song was originally supposed to be a remix of baby legend but then when I made the beginning it sounded sort of like street fighter music so I just added figher to the end of it and made it sound kind of like fighting music, I didn't have the much experience with making music when I made this so it just ended being motif vomit, some parts sounded liek they could be their own songs so I've started working on making them into songs, not much else to say except that I'm thankful cookiefonster made it sound good.

Cookiefonster - Composer

Editing other people's Famitracker files is hell but I hope it was worth it.

AlphaShire - Artist

I was just practicing drawing until I thought, hey I can use this for an Obana song, I used it for my own song as to not dissapoint anyone who worked hard on a song to be unhappy with the art, I finished it and was debating whether or not I should use it but people said to just do it so I did, later Scarodactyl added shaing and made it look badass which just turned this song into being some shit I pulled together and other people making it awesome.

Scarodactyl - Artist

I don't even know anymore

YOU KILLED THE ECONONY (PREPARE TO DIE)

Viridian - Composer

“not enough canwc smh” -myself, cookie, literally everyone

ackro - Artist

funny story about this one, i actually made it before i even knew there was an obana album in progress. i think it was like my second art i made for the team, and it just happened out of a random bout of inspiration. when i saw this song i said to myself, “well now i HAVE to put this here.” so here we are.

BARACK OBANA PRESENTS THE STORY OF COOL AND NEW MUSIC TEAM

nunndo - Composer

Somebody once told me LODAD is gonna roll me

I ain't the sharpest ham in the shelf
He was looking kind of dumb with his finger and his thumb

In the shape of an "L" on his forehead

Cool and New Webcomic is cool and also it's new It's made by some shitposter named o
M S P Fan Ventures is where you can find it all at There's another cool thing about it though

A couple cool musicians made some cool music
Some people heard it, said why can't I do this Thought some more, said no reason I can't
A team where everyone has a chance

Not too stuck on high quality
But still lots of good work can't you see You'll never know if you don't try You'll make the redditstuck fans cry

Well Hey, now, you're an Artist, make art for some songs
Well Hey, now, you're a Composer, go make some songs
Put some effort in it
We can't just put out complete shit

It's a cool team and we keep getting newer
The rejected songs should go in a sewer
But the managers surely know the best
The worst of the worst can still get on the sound test

The discord list is getting pretty full
But still nobody on it is too full of bull
Our fan base is huge how about yours?

That's the way we like it and we'll never get bored.
Well Hey, now, you're an Artist, make art for some songs
Well Hey, now, you're a Composer, go make some songs
Put some effort in it
We can't just put out complete shit

(Whistle break)

Well Hey, now, you're an Artist, make art for some songs
Well Hey, now, you're a Composer, go make some songs

Put some effort in it
We can't just put out complete shit

Somebody once asked me "Have you read Jojostuck?"
I said I haven't but that's funny as fuck

I was struck by a concept
I could make a cool song out of that
And suddenly I was on the team

A couple cool musicians made some cool music
Some people heard it, said why can't I do this Thought some more, said no reason I can't
A team where everyone has a chance

Not too stuck on high quality

Don't want to repeat volume six

YES WE CANWC

ackro - Album Artist

This art was originally supposed to be the track art for economy in state of disrepair but we needed album art before the deadline and we didnt have any so we just used mine. also scaro is the one who did the cool dramatic lighting on the head so dont give me too much credit. i tried doing some lighting for it myself but ended up just saying fuck it and put a bunch of orange shit on there. anyway i hope you guys enjoy my contributions to the team! this is my first album here and the team is basically like hsd but if hsd only had people who were cool.

Makin - Manager

This album was planned when we realized we had a few pretty long obana songs in '9', while the album was looking to be a second s*x in sheer length. We quickly agreed to make an obana album to contain these masterpieces, and with time the album grew into more than a tiny afterthought. Let's enjoy the album and make LODAD great again!

Interrobang - Booklet

Wish i had had ideas to put towards this album, but thats just the way it is sometimes. This booklet was done almost completely the day before release, and took a couple of hours total to make. Enjoy the album!
